

Letters to the Publisher

Small Business Inspiration

I thoroughly enjoy reading about your successful women business owners.

I am married to a Publisher in the Pharmaceutical industry, who is successful because of how hard she works and the support her clients give her, in the form of advertising pages.

Because I gave her my copy of WomensBiz.US to read, she is contemplating buying her publication!

"Womensbiz.US" and her husband, maybe, contributed to another "Small business owner"! Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Marc Stashower

Driving Instructions

The road to success is not straight. There is a curve called Failure, a loop called Confusion, speed bumps called Friends, red lights called Enemies, caution lights called Family. You will have flats called Jobs. But, if you have a spare called Determination, an engine called Perseverance, insurance called Faith, a driver called Jesus, you will make it to a place called Success.

Keep driving WomensBiz.US!
